Descriptions:

Scenario 1: Moving then Static: Case 1 - The person moves towards the driver’s path. The person then stops in the middle of the driver’s path, bringing the car to a complete stop.

Scenario 1: Moving then Static: Case 2 - The person moves towards the driver’s path. The person continues across the driver’s path, crossing to the other side of the road.
Descriptions:

Scenario 2: Static then Moving: Case 1 - The person is static on the side of the road. The person continues across the driver’s path, crossing to the other side of the road. The car then resumes driving.

Scenario 1: Static then Moving: Case 2 - The person moves towards the driver’s path. The person stops just before entering the driver’s path, and the car resumes driving.
Descriptions:

Scenario 3: Static - The person is static in the middle of the road. The car brakes until it stops.

Driver Override - The person moves towards the driver’s path. PCAS detects the pedestrian and issues a warning. The driver sees the warning and presses the brake, which initiates driver override.